Ramchalli Krishnappa's

Petn.

The petitioner has been sending reminders, and so the case cannot be dropped, if the records are lost.

A copy of the petn (~~the~~ the most detailed one) may be sent to the Dy Cr, and he may be asked to investigate the matter from the beginning examining where necessary witnesses & obtaining final village records &c, and submit a report within a month to the Rev Commr, to whom the matter may be referred for disposal on further report.

The delay is scandalous, and the Dy Cr= should report whether he has found out the person responsible for the loss & from he has furnished him.

The Rev. Commr= should be requested to examine the Bangalore D.to Records carefully, and see that efficient arrangements are made for keeping them in a satisfactory condition.

A draft is submitted for approval.
